London Abused Women's Centre

We are hiring full-time Advocate/Counsellor for a 2-year contract.

The London Abused Women's Centre is a feminist agency that provides long-term, trauma-informed counselling, advocacy, and support to women and girls over the age of 12 who have been abused, assaulted, harassed, exploited, trafficked or who have been subjected to non-state torture.

If you are a radical feminist with an understanding of the impact and dynamics of male violence against women and girls then we would like to hear from you!

The London Abused Women's Centre is a feminist, abolitionist agency.
Women applying should support these views.

We are looking for a woman's advocate with the following skills and experiences:
- experience providing woman-centred, trauma-informed individual counselling, advocacy and support to women and girls over the age of 12;
- experience with group facilitation for women and girls over the age of 12;
- knowledge of the relationship between trauma, mental health and substance use;
- advocating on behalf of women and girls at individual and community level;
- supporting women through the family law and criminal justice systems;
- supporting women and girls who have been sexually exploited and trafficked;
- working with women and girls from diverse cultures and backgrounds;
- ability to effectively prioritize and multi-task, must demonstrate a high degree of mature judgement;
- French or other second language skills are an asset;
- Availability to work both days and evenings as required.

This is a 2-year contract, full-time, Monday through Friday, 35-hour per week position with training provided. We operate as a team where the voices of each employee are valued.

If you have these skills and experience, support our views, and are interested in this position, we want to hear from you!
